The report, based on the investigations of the United States Government officers, and published in THE SUN some time ago, declaring the arrangements at Quarantine to be en-tirely inadequate for the protection of this city from disease, has been corroborated by the findings of the State Board of Health. In a letter to Gov. Hill embodying their findings. President Thomas N. Newbold declares that "it is the unanimous opinion of those posted on such matters that it would be difficult to imagine a worse state of affairs than now exists at the Quarantine station." The letter de-scribes in detail the condition of the hospitals on Hoffman and Swinburne Islands, where contagious diseases are troated, and shows how badly they are fitted for the purpose. Al-though there is no direct statement condemning Health Officer Smith's methods, the allusions to the mismanagement are sufficiently explicit to show that the State Board entirely disapproves of his course.

The conclusions reached in the letter are based upon the reports made by Dr. Lewis Balch, the Secretary, and upon information received from other physicians who have visited Quarantine. Dr. Balch made several visits to the two islands and went over the ground thoroughly. He reached the conclusion that unless the management was radically improved there would be great danger to the country of an epidemic of cholera. He also charges the authorities with outrageous cruelty in the treatment of poor immigrants who have been detained there. In some cases, the letter states, sick patients were transferred from Hoffman Island to Swinburne Island in open rowboats.

Hoffman Island to Swinburne Island in open rowboats.

Dr. Baich visited the islands last fall, when a number of cholera patients were there in charge of the Quarantine authorities. He reported there were no resident physicians there and that at Hoffman Island especially everything was in decay as a result of neglect. There were no femile nurses for the women patients. The sanitary arrangements at Hoffman Island are reported to have been utterly unift and inaufficient, and there were no means for isolating patients and no physicians to tell whether they were ill or not. Food was distributed without regard to the laws of health and was undoubtedly the means of prolonging the ravages of the disease.

After riving credit for having finally over-were ill or not. Food was distributed without regard to the laws of health and was undoubtedly the means of prolonging the ravages of the disease.

After giving credit for having finally overcome the disease to the Board of Health of this city, the report continues: "Hoffman Island was in such a state of decay as to be almost useleas. Swinburne Island alone was in a condition to give any chance of successfully handling disease. But here no resident physician was stationed, not enough nurses, and no female nurse, and the poor creatures under treatment there had to await the coming of the Health Officer to receive attention, save what the nurses could give; and the Health Officer to receive attention, save what the nurses could give; and the Health Officer stated that the attacks in this outbreak of cholera were sudden and severe, the stage of collapse comington in from eight to twelve hours. Cholera is a disease in which prompt action is called for on the part of the physician. It would seem that, from ordinary dictates of humanity, the Quarantine authorfties would have had enough medical officers employed, if only for temporary service, to fully attend and give all sid in their power to those unfortunate enough to be stricken with such a plague. The families or mess groups who had been exposed to infection among the immigrants from the Britannia, with the result of almost immediately stopping the outbreak."

The members of the State Board of Health were unanimous in their approval of this report, and it is now on file in the Govornor's office at Albany. The Quarantine Commissioners would not talk about the report yester-day, Commissioner Nichols said that any statement the Commissioners make an annual report to the Legislature, and they may deal with the charges in this report. Neither Commissioner Flatt nor Commissioner Judd could be seen.

It has been repeatedly decided by the courts that the whole street from house front to house front belongs to the public, and that no interference therewith by the purpose of lingress and egress to their property, is lawful. Permission to occupy any portion of the space within the stoop line ought therefore only to be granted after due consideration of the superior right of the public to occupy the street. Under no circumstances is the owner of the property authorized to derive any income whatever from the use of any portion of the space within the stoop line. Broadway is one of the most crowded points in the city of New York. Every linch of ground at that point which can be secured to the public is absolutely necessary for its convenience. The statement of the substantial at that place has long been the substantial that the place has long been the substantial that the property of its convenience. The statement of the most pertinacious manner, and only sinally accomplished through the agency of the courts. In the hearings which were held before me it was stated, and I have no doubt truly, that a large rental was spaid to the owner of the property for she use of the street, and I have no doubt in the present case that the grantee under your resolution will be required to pay a reat to the owner of the property. TWO EMINENT BURGLARS.

Williams and Lynch Identified as the New-On the night of Sept. 29 last the Farmers' National Bank of Delaware, at Newcastle, was broken into by four masked burglars, who bound Mr. Brooks, a brother-in-law of Cashier Richard J. Cooper. Cooper, whose presence was not known to the burglars, went to Brooks's assistance, and there was a lively erimmage, in which several shots were fired scrimmage, in which several shots were fired, and the burgiars were driven off. Two of them were John Williams, alias Wilson, alias Connors, and William Lynch, who were arrested shortly afterward for house breaking in Massachusetts, and were lodged in Pittsfield jail, whence they recently escaped, Capt. Mangin of Yonkers arrested Lynch, and Central Office Detective Vailily captured Connors in this city recently, Connors has now told Inspector Byrnes that he, Lynch, and two others attempted the robbery of the Newcastle bank, Cashier Cooper same here and fully identified Connors as one of the burgiars. Connors also admitted that he met Mr. Cooper on that eventful evening, Connors is still at Police Headquarters. Lynch is in the White Plains jail.

He Laughs Best who Laughs Lust. J. Edward Norton was returning from J. Edward Norton was returning from Brooklyn on Monday night "chuck full of Christmas," as Justice Duffy put it in the Tombs Court yesterday. As he left the bridge exit in Fark row he slipped and fell. A Brooklynite returning home also "full of Christmas" laughed at Norton. Norton resented this, and the men pitched into each other savagely. A bridge policeman arrested them, and yesterday at the Tombs they were fined $5 each.

ared in the Geneva, N. Y., Gazette, Jan. 21, 1887, en appeared in the Geneva, N. Y., Gazette, Jan. 31, 1867, en-tirely unknown to us until after its publication: "Without doubt, a large proportion of these who have passed the meridian of life suffer more or less from rheu-

the witness against murderer John Greenwell, since the discovery, on Monday morning, that he had escaped from Raymond street jail in Brooklyn on the previous night by bending back one of the bars in the window, forcing Bargains back one of the bars in the window, technically himself through the 11-inch space, and sliding to the ground down a rope made of towels. So far, however, no trace of him has been discovered. He was a sailor for several years, and it is suspected that he has gone to sea. Krause left a long letter, written in German, behind him, addressed to Sheriff Farley. It was found yesterday, but the Sheriff would not disclose its contents. He said:

"There are some things in the letter which may possibly aid me in capturing Krause. He pitches into me very severely in the letter, accusing me of treating him like a dog and not giving him feed fit to be eaten. He said he got stew for breakfast, stew for dinner, and stew for supper. This is false, as he had the same meals I and my family have had. I treated him much better than he deserved, even furnishing underelothing for him. As to his secape, it was made possible by the weakness of the window guards, for which the Board of Supervisors is responsible." himself through the 11-inch space, and sliding

BABY'S SKIN AND SCALP

Cleaneed, Purified and Beautified by Cutt-

Last November my little boy, aged 3 years, fell against the stove while he was running, and cut his head, and, right after that, he broke out all over his head, face, and left ear. I had a good doctor, Dr.
to attend him, but he got worse, and the doctor could not cure him. His whole head, face, and left ear were in not cure him. His whole head, face, and left ear were in a fearful state, and he suffered terribly. I caught the disease from him, and it spread all over my face and neck and even got into my eyes. Nobody thought we would ever get better. I fail sure we were disfigured for life. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIER, and procured a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a box of CUTICURA, and a cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and used them constantly day and night. After using two bottless them constantly day and night. After using two bottles of RESOLVENT, four boxes of CUTICURA, and four cakes of SOAP, we are perfectly cured without a sear. My boy's skin is now like satin. LILLIE EPTING. STI Grand st., Jersey City, N. J., Sworn to, before me, this 27th day of March, 1985.

THE WORST SORE HEAD.

Have been in the drug and medicine business twenty five years. Have been selling your CUTICURA REME DIES since they came West. They lead all others it their lins. We could not write nor could you print all we have heard said in favor of the CUTICURA REME we have heard said in favor of the CUTICURA REMB-DIES. One year ago the CUTICURA and SOAP cured a little girl in our house of the worst sore head we ever asw, and the RESOLVENT and CUTICURA are now curing a young gentleman of a sore leg, while the physicians are trying to have it amputated. It will save his leg and perhaps his life. Too much cannot be said in favor of CUTICURA REMEDIES.
